

Pic-n-Hoe Surveys/Pic-n-He Participation Evaluation-

The Duck pick up was a steal and the location was amazing. The prizes were awesome for the kids and the overall feeling was comfortable. One family would leave and come back with brand new ideas. The survey was perfected with only three questions and it brought a lot of attention. So overall it was a SUCCESS!

Brandi from the Dove's Nest thanked us all for the money and it will definitely help.

Jobs: Billboard and Webpage-

The Hemp plant is on the open market again and is on hold as of today.

Outreach: Plan-

Ronda stated that the welcome baskets are at the office that Steve had started. Now we just need to find the names of the people who are newcomers.

Ellen wasn't sure if the other benches have been placed yet. One of the questions on the survey involved how to make the town look better, and flower pots and more trees were a huge hit.

Planning Commission (Heather)-

Nothing to report.

It was just a quick meeting that last only a few minutes.

Town Board (Lois)-
